

"A Walk Through Life"

We all are born to take a walk through life.

On May 1, 1960, Beauford Mathis Jr., known lovingly as "Junior" began his walk.

As with any walk, along the way there were challenges and changes.

He was a son, brother, father, uncle, brother-in-law,
cousin, veteran, and friend.

Through his walk of life the seasons changed.

We saw him laugh, smile, and cry.

He saw winters, springs, summers, and falls.
We could walk silently with him but not for him.

Thankfully, God walks with us all.

As with any walk there were twists, turns,
mountains, valleys, and hills to climb.

He fell along the way as we all do. Nobody is perfect.

Along this walk he met many people,
some who were lessons and some who were blessings.

On Thursday November 9, 2017,

God the Father said, "Beauford Mathis Jr., it is time for your walk to end, take your rest".

Rest In Peace, "Junior"

We Love You and You will be Missed!
